OREGON CENTENNIAL EDITION

Remember When...

You got there just as the flag went up?

Bandmaster Kienzle got you to all start off on the right note

You couldn't quite decide where to begin?

Your first job began to look like something

You, the book, and the pal(s) across the way collaborated?

A breathing spell betwee yells was heavenly?

When you check cars instead of listening?

Those delightful smells!

How much Pressure it registered?

You never could tell whether it would work or blow.

The things you could mix in Chemistry class?

When your head was too big for your cap!

The castles you planned.

You just "Let yourself go."

How you made the feathers fly at the fair?

What a nasty trip this was in the rain?

How long the line was when you were starving?

Everything was new and exciting in shop?

When you were a sophomore?

How eager you were to run an errand?

Wasn't It Fun!

JERRY WICKSTROM

VERNON WIENSZ

The class of '59 came to high school without fanfare or much notice. We were a small class of a little over ninety members. Our one boast, that of staying out of the quarrels that were waged between the juniors and seniors.

Our class officers for the first year as sophomores were: president, Jim Barnard; vice-president. Dick Sherman; secretary, Alvera Wenko; treasurer, Carrol Diehm.

To help us get acquainted as sophomores we chose Mr. Kunke and Mr. Salisbury as advisors.

We were very proud in February of our princess for the Sweetheart Ball, Virginia Collins.

The junior year was a very busy one spent in preparing for the prom and banquet to be given for the seniors. The responsibility for this and other class activities rested on the shoulders of our class officers: president, Ivan Esau; vice-president, Dick Sherman; secretary, Eloise Staats; treasurer, Marilyn Anderson; sergeant-at-arms, Don Stoneburner.

BRENT MC TAGGERT

The big job supervising our prom activities was given to Mrs. Barry and Mr. Richards.

Most of our money raising activities were directed toward raising funds for the prom and banquet. The theme finally chosen for them was Deep Purple.

Our royalty for the year were: Kandy Kane Princess, Virginia Collins; Sweetheart Princess, Sharon Shelton.

The past year, our senior year, has seen the class mature and become more responsible as we prepared for graduation. In early fall we elected as officers: president, Jim Cook; vice-president, Virginia Collins; secretary-treasurer, Carol Nelson. Our advisers: Mr. Kunke and Mrs. Barry.

Homecoming and we chose our court: Queen, Sue Lewis; Princesses, Judie Page, Joan Rose, Virginia Collins, Carrol Diehm, Carol Nelson.

At Christmas time we sponsored the Christmas dance "Silver Thaw." Our candidate Carol Nelson was elected queen for the evening.

Our Sweetheart for '59 was Cecilia Pascoe, and since this was Oregon's Centennial year we elected a Pioneer, Marvin Cook.

We consider ourselves lucky to graduate in such a significant year as 1959, when our state is celebrating its Centennial. As we look into the future we hope we can find something to pioneer.

Dallas had an off and on season this year, winning three games, losing five and tying one. In their first game the Dragons were ahead until the last 28 seconds, losing to Tillamook 12-7. They tied St. Helens 13-13. The loss to Forest Grove by a 7-0 score was a heartbreaking one as Dallas had the ball first down and less than ten yards to go but they couldn't put it over. After losing to McMinnville, Dallas finally started to move when they whipped Newberg. The Dragons slid past Tigard in the home-coming game despite an injury to Bob Wall, as Steve Villwock guided the team to victory. Next Dallas rolled over the Oswego Lakers 12-0 but lost to West Linn in a high-scoring game 39-19. In the season's final game played in a sea of mud, the Dragons, coached by Ken Jacobson, lost 5-0 to Oregon City.

Dallas wound up its first season in the TYV League tied with Tigard for fifth place.

This is Doug Otjen, not the Statue of Liberty. In the last game of the season, with Tillamook, the boys staged a 16-point comeback in the first moments of the fourth period to win 67 to 65, thus ending a . 500 season.

A tense moment for Les and Dave.

RIGHT: Phillip's long arm should make a point for the home team.
BELOW: Who gets the ball away from Hiebenthal is anybody's guess.

Junior Varsity

Teal tries to block McMinnville's lay-in shot; supported by Klassen and Hooge.

Collingham clears the bar at 12 feet 5 3/4 inches.

Dallas captured its first state championship, as Everett Collingham, junior, pole vaulted 12 feet 4 inches high at Corvallis May 21.

Collingham, the season's second highest scoring letterman with 80 11/12 points, had previously set the pole vaulting record with a jump of 12 feet 5 3/4 inches. Everett also participated in the broad jump, high jump, 100 yard dash, low hurdles, and javelin events.

Highest scoring letterman was Larry Link, junior, with a total of 116 3/4 points as he captured most of the 100 and 220 yard dash, and broad jump DHS events. He also ran a leg in the relay team. Larry set the Dallas record in a 10.1 time lapse in the 100 yard dash.
